The Legacy of St Thomas the Apostle: Unity in Diversity

The Feast of St Thomas the Apostle, celebrated on 3 July, reminds us of the truly universal nature of the Catholic Church. "Universal" means more than being present throughout the world; it means embracing many cultures, languages, and liturgical traditions while remaining united in one faith and one baptism. This diversity is a gift of the Holy Spirit, who continues to guide and renew the Church in every age.

The Catholic Church consists of 24 autonomous (sui iuris) Churches in full communion with the Pope. The largest is the Latin (Roman) Church, to which most of us in Bangor & Caernarfon belong. Alongside it are 23 Eastern Catholic Churches, each with its own ancient liturgy, spirituality, and heritage. These Churches are fully Catholic and fully apostolic, demonstrating that unity does not require uniformity.

Among the Eastern Catholic Churches, the Syro-Malabar and Syro-Malankara Churches have a special connection to St Thomas. The Syro-Malabar Church traces its origins to the Apostle's preaching in India in AD 52 and follows the East Syriac tradition. The Syro-Malankara Church, rooted in the West Syriac tradition, also honours St Thomas as its founder and preserves a rich liturgical and spiritual heritage.

Both traditions are represented in our parish community. The presence of Syro-Malabar and Syro-Malankara families enriches our shared life of faith and beautifully reflects the Church's catholicity—a home for all peoples and cultures.

As we celebrate St Thomas, we remember his faith, missionary zeal, and martyrdom in Mylapore, India. His witness continues to inspire millions of Christians around the world. May his example strengthen our unity, deepen our faith, and renew our commitment to proclaiming the Gospel in our own time.

HELP KEEP OUR CHURCHES BEAUTIFUL!

Bangor and Caernarfon churches need volunteers to keep these sacred spaces clean, tidy, and welcoming.

Tom E. is looking for extra hands for both the indoor team (Our Lady's Cleaners United) and the outdoor group (OLSJ Outdoor Helpers) in Bangor. Contact Tom at the church.

Caplandy Catholig Bangor Catholic Chaplaincy & Here for Students and Staff

Chaplaincy Summer Update:

The usual Chaplaincy programme is suspended for the summer, but occasional events will be advertised via our email list.

Key Highlights

1. Confirmations: Congratulations to Nellie Grindley and Tom Everleigh, whom Bishop Peter confirmed on 26 May at the Chaplaincy (Tom was also received into Full Communion with the Catholic Church).
2. Graduations: Summer graduations take place 6–10 July. This is the culmination of many years of study for the students and a time for celebration. Let us remember them as they move on to the next phase in their lives and pray that they will use the knowledge and skills they have learned here to make the world a better place.

Bangor Parish Boiler Update

The PAC and Parish Finance Committee have appointed Mr. Alan Wilkinson, Mr. Anthony Anisiobi, and Mr. Richard Allsopp will handle all boiler issues. Mr. Paul Rowlinson will manage all insurance-related issues. We thank them for their service to the parish.

Sea Sunday 12 July 2026

On Sunday, 12 July, the Church will celebrate Sea Sunday, a day dedicated to praying for seafarers, fishers, and all those who work at sea. In order to support the vital ministry of Stella Maris, and to provide pastoral care, practical assistance, and spiritual support to those whose lives and livelihoods depend on the sea, a second collection will be taken.

Preparation for Confirmation

After a long hiatus since our last celebration in 2011, our parish is preparing for the Sacrament of Confirmation once again. If you or your child wish to receive Confirmation, please complete a registration form—available on our parish website and in the church—and return it as indicated to join the preparation programme.

26 July – Family Eucharist

On Sunday, 26 July—the Feast of Saints Joachim and Anne—we will celebrate the World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly. During our Family Eucharist, we will honour the grandparents and elderly of our community, and pray for all parishioners celebrating a milestone or birthday in July.

To include a name, please complete a slip at the back of the church and place it in the letterbox.
